This month we will take a peek into the past and feature the very popular Carnival Glass auction of the estate of Marion T. Hartung. Auctioneers were John Woody and his father Milton Woody. MILLERSBURG FLEUR-DE-LIS COMPOTE

It was hard for us to believe our own eyes when we first saw this little piece of Carnival Glass. We had to rub our eyes several times to see if we were really seeing things straight. But yes it was indeed a Millersburg Fleur-De-Lis small six ruffled compote in green. Being the only one that has been reported it would have to be considered as extremely rare. It is definately the only one we have ever seen or heard of. It was an exciting experience for us just to see and handle it. The bottom photo shows the compote in the standing position.

This fantastic piece of Millersburg Carnival Glass is owned by Don Doyle of Rockford, Illinois. He sent us photos of the piece to illustrate in this article so other collectors might learn of its existance. He also sent us a photo to add to the H.O.A.C.G.A. Notebook Compote Section, which the Club appreciates very much. A photostatic copy of the mold drawing of this piece was included in his letter. We would suspect that this compote was probably made near the close of the Millersburg factory. It also might be of interest to you that we have seen a mold drawing of a Millersburg Multi-Fruits & Flowers butter dish. This was sent to us by Jack Wilson. Wouldn't it have been great if John Fenton and the Millersburg Glass Company could have produced Carnival Glass for at least another three or four years? We are sure that there would have been a lot more beautiful patterns and pieces of Carnival Glass for us to search for today.

This article featuring the exciting little Millersburg Fleur-De-Lis compote is #186 in our Pictorial Pattern Parade. We hope that you have found it interesting.

EDUCATIONAL TUMBLER SERIES

BY JOHN & LUCILE BRITT

THE EGYPTIAN QUEEN TUMBLER

When first viewing the Egyptian Queen tumbler one might think it is too tall to be a tumbler, but we agree with other collectors and authors in which we have consulted, that this is not the case. There are a good many other tumblers, especially foreign made tumblers, that are taller or as tall as the Egyptian Queen. We have seen complete drinking sets of patterns such as Floral and Melon Ribs (Whitley #28) and Late Strawberry (Whitley #33) where the tumblers are even taller than the Egyptian Queen tumblers. The tumblers to our Floral and Melon Ribs set measure 6 3/4 inches high. Richard Owens, in his very fine tumbler book, illustrates and discusses the size factor of the Egyptian Queen very well. You might like to read his writing on that pattern if you do have his tumbler book.

The marigold Egyptian Queen tumbler stands 5 3/4 inches high, has a rim diameter of 3 1/2 inches and a collar base diameter of 2 1/2 inches. The underside of the base is slightly depressed. The main feature of this pattern is a two inch wide band that circles the tumbler near the top and contains seven figures of people. These figures are unclad and seem to be performing with musical instruments. A jar stands between two of these figures. This band of figures is covered with a sort of greenish stain like effect. The rest of the tumbler is in nice marigold. Below this band of figures are 8 concave panels, slightly more than one inch wide, that extend down to the collar base. These panels actually extend on to the underside of the base and form a figure on the bottom of the tumbler that resembles a pie that has been cut into eight slices. Most collectors and authors now consider this pattern to be of Czechoslovakian origin. The example photographed on the following page is the exact size of the tumbler shown in Owens' tumbler book. WE have also seen a vase in the Egyptian Queen pattern, but it was much wider and taller than our featured tumbler.

Marion Hartung shows another version of a very similar pattern that she calls Classic Arts. It is described and illustrated in Hartung Book 5, page 104. This example has the same greenish colored band near the top, on it contains different figures than does the Egyptian Queen piece. Most of these figures appear to be dancing. We rather suspect that these two different pieces were made by the same company.

This article is #198 in our Educational Tumbler Series. We hope that you have found it interesting. We would like to thank David Doty for furnishing the photo for this article.

A LOOK AT TABLE SETS

BY CHUCK & MARGE KREMER

THE GRAPE AND CABLE TABLE SET

Northwood's Grape and Cable is without a doubt the most popular Carnival Glass pattern ever made. It was riding high when we attended our first auction in the late 60's and we well remember how it impressed us then. The table sets were made in marigold, amethyst, green and rare ice green. We have seen it also listed as available in an ice blue, but ice blue is a doubtful color and was involved in a reproduction - we will cover that in a future article.

We acquired our first Grape and Cable table set piece in 1975 when a friend gave us a "plate" which was an amethyst butter base. We quickly found a top, but it wasn't until later that we tried to finish the set. The sugar we needed was the hardest to find, as on a great many the underside of the base had the problem "peeling" we wanted to avoid. About the same time we located the individual pieces for a good marigold set. We bought most of these pieces when the popularity of the Grape & Cable pattern was down somewhat, so the prices we paid were usually quite reasonable with the exception of the amethyst sugar. Good amethyst sugars and marigold creamers seem to be the hardest to locate.

While not plentiful, good green pieces are available and at prices comparable to the amethyst pieces. We like the good color and iridescence on the green set, but have to admit it takes a back seat to the ice green one. Of course, there will be a vast difference in price, too.

How rare is the ice green set? We only know of two complete sets, but feel more may exist as there are scattered individual pieces around. One of these sets, with a damaged sugar, sold in the Burns-Williams auction in May, 1992 for $3,950.00. In our opinion this table set in ice green is one of the prettiest sets ever made and certainly among the rarest.

This is number 25 in our Series on Table Sets.

ON THE AUCTION TRAIL WITH CHUCK & MARGE

MAY 27-28, 1994: Keystone Convention, Brookville, Pennsylvania. For hospitality and a well run affair the Keystone Convention is hard to beat. We were treated to a pair of educational programs. The first was on Northwood Glass by Gary Heckenberger, and what a selection of glass he had to show us! In the second one, Dave Sharp had a choice group of compotes to share with us for his program--from small to large and scarce to rare. The rarest of all may have been the "stuff" at the white elephant sale after the banquet--as usual this was the fun-fun part of the Convention.

Burns Auction Service had the Convention auction and presented a good selection of glass. This auction is usually a relaxed and enjoyable affair, and this one proved true to form. The crowd and auction team interact and the result is a good, quick sale at respectable prices. The red 9½" Fenton Rustic vase at $4,200.00, the amethyst 17¼" Fenton Rustic funeral vase at $1,600.00 and the lavender stippled Three Fruits plate at $1,100.00 are some examples of the higher selling pieces.

Keystone's own Randy Smith cried part of the sale. This was the first time we had heard Randy, and we were impressed with his performance. We will surely see him again.

JUNE 3-4, 1994: Burns Auction Service sale at the newly refurbished Holiday Inn, New Philadelphia, Ohio. This is the second time this motel has been a Holiday Inn. Each of the previous 3 or 4 owners took more out than they put back, and it was in deplorable shape--until now. We always liked this location and were glad Tom came back to it. Besides, it is only 10 or so miles from the Sugar Creek Bakery with their delicious pastries--yes, we brought some home.

We went to this sale with some doubt. 150 tumblers in one auction! What we saw was a wide variety of tumblers and most had really good color and iridescence--and they sold well. The rest of the sale glass was average to good and, like any auction, sold accordingly. When we saw dealers buy a lot of this glass we knew there were some good buys. An example of pieces we liked was the blue stippled Peacocks plate with electric blue iridescence at $975.00 and the amethyst ice cream shaped Millersburg Courthouse bowl at $650.00. There must have been a dozen milk pitchers, some awfully nice--and the prices were right.

Auto racing may have its "Little Al," but they have nothing on our hobby--we have "Young Bill". Randy Smith and Young Bill Richards cried the entire sale and did a very good job--they work well together. Tom and staff had the glass clean and well displayed, and the sale moved right along. For us this was an interesting and "fun" sale. They even sold an aqua opal Beaded Cable rose bowl without feet for $35.00--someone had ground the feet completely off.

JUNE 10-11, 1994: Burns Auction Service sold the Ed and June Tomczak Collection at the Lincoln Land Convention. This auction had been promoted for months and was expected to be a super auction--so much so it drew bidders from all corners of the country.

The sale was a study in contrasts. The Friday night portion of the sale was one big struggle between the auction team and the bidders while the Saturday session was smooth and fast paced. Friday the crowd was laid-back and slow to bid, but in our opinion the glass eventually sold at desirable prices. A couple of returned items were almost the "straw that broke the camels back" and lead to a few rule changes for the Saturday session of the sale. We were told to use the preview time to examine the glass and bid accordingly and to eliminate the "nit-picking." Major damage would be called, but beyond that we were on our own and were to buy the glass as presented. Apparently the crowd liked the idea as the rest of the sale was almost a "model sale."

As expected, the sapphire Peacock at the Urn large ice cream bowl at $20,000.00 and the purple Corn Husk Vase at $14,000.00 were the stars of the sale. There was something for everyone from the 16 Hearts & Flowers compotes lead by the marigold-custard one at $4,600.00 to the new Figural Alley Cats.

JUNE 19, 1994: Louise Wiley Collection sold at her home in Columbus, Indiana. This was one of those "should have stayed at home" auctions. It was 97 degrees so we went somewhat prepared with a towel and wide brimmed hat. The auctioneer had erected two small steel pipe framed tents in the backyard and an hour before sale time they started to bring the glass out. The sun shined until just as the sale started when a thundershower came up. It only lasted 10 or so minutes, but how safe was it under those tents in a storm?

Pressed glass and china sold first so the storm was over when the Carnival came up for sale. The glass was numbered, but no list was available. The ads said "every piece in perfect condition." That statement alone should have warned us. We didn't see any cracked in half and glued together pieces, but there were chips, etc. We stayed long enough to see the sale trend and watch a couple of dealers bid against each other on the better pieces. A lavender Strawberry plain backed plate brought $200.00 and an amethyst Grape & Cable handgrip plate at $95.00 sold early. We left before the best piece--a red Blackberry Spray hat sold. The pieces we were interested in were either damaged or not desirable--and besides we were hot and tired of standing.

NORTHWOOD POPPY RELISH DISH
BY DEAN & DIANE FRY

The Sheer delight of an interesting shape, unique design found ONLY on THIS piece of glass and the marvelous intricacy and detail of the beautiful pattern creates excitement which pattern collectors thrive on!

Of course, the Agua Opal example is absolutely the ultimate color to own, and will command close to $1,000.00 in today's market (for a super example), is CLOSELY followed by the gorgeous and rare green in desirability.

If you choose to accumulate all colors in this pattern, the blue & marigold are usually quite beautiful, as well.

The spectacular does not always appear in large sizes. Many times, some of the smaller versions of enticement, such as this piece can make a pleasant diversion from our bowl-plate concentration for achievement.

The overall design of this relish dish, with ribbing on the reverse and the graceful oval-ruffled shape becomes a nice departure from the usual. We hope you will take another look at this wonderful pattern--unique in its own right!

I am enclosing a photo of a marigold 7" bowl with 6 ruffles and a Basketweave exterior I purchased. It is the Northwood pattern of Fruits & Flowers with a stippled background. This bowl has three leaves radiating toward the center but not touching, leaving room for the Northwood trademark in the center (interior and exterior). I am aware of the Three Fruits Variant with the Medallion center, however this is a different center configuration and pattern.

Could you or someone in H.O.A.C.G.A. help me more clearly identify this variation of Fruits & Flowers, and the availability of this bowl.

JULY, 1994 REGULAR H.O.A.C.G.A. MONTHLY MEETING

The regular meeting of the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association for July, 1994 will take place on July 24, 1994, at 2:00 P.M. at the Raytown City Hall, Raytown, Missouri. (The meetings are always on the 4th Sunday of the month).

We will have a Program on Vases. Everyone has a few vases in their collection, so pack them up and bring them to share with your fellow collectors.

WE had a good turnout for the June 26, 1994 meeting. Sixteen members brought 28 pieces of red, white, and blue glass to share. President Grissom presented the pieces and everyone enjoyed the discussion and the treats by JoAnn Ball. Gene Cox won the door prize, a red basket whimsey made from a Good Luck plate. (The odds are lots better than the Lottery for winning a door prize at the meetings and we do give good ones!)

Hope to see you at the July meeting!

ED KRAMER
SECRETARY,
H.O.A.C.G.A.

NOTES FROM THE SECRETARY, JULY, 1994:

* Some people are STILL making checks out to me. We would prefer all checks to be made payable to H.O.A.C.G.A.

* Please allow a month for your orders to be processed. Logging in membership renewals and orders as well as packaging and mailing the orders is a time consuming process.

ED KRAMER
SECRETARY,
H.O.A.C.G.A.

H.O.A.C.G.A. PATTERN INFORMATION:

The Four-Seventy-Four punch set was made in one size and one shape, as pictured in the Heart of America Carnival Glass Notebook, by the way, which is an excellent picture.

Club members sent in the following information: 9 marigold, 2 green, 1 amethyst. There are probably more marigold than the 9 listed, and maybe 2 more green sets. As far as the amethyst there were 3 sets in the early 1970's. Two amethyst sets have since been destroyed.

According to the information Club members sent in, we should not take the Four-Seventy-Four pattern lightly. You won't find a Four-Seventy-Four punch set everytime you look for Carnival Glass. Thanks to all Club members for responding.

DARYL STROHM
VICE-PRESIDENT
H.O.A.C.G.A.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Ed:

WE are two of your Aussie members and would like to renew our membership.

Please find enclosed $40.00 and also $9.00 for the H.O.A.C.G.A. Insert on Compotes #2.

We love getting the Bulletin each month, so we had to write a letter to the Club.

Dear Ed:

Thanks so much for the video tape of the Roast at the H.O.A.C.G.A. Convention. WE have enjoyed it over and over. We do appreciate it.

Hope all is going well with you.

H.O.A.C.G.A. PATTERN NOTEBOOK

In 1979 the H.O.A.C.G.A. Pattern Notebook was started. The first section was Punch Sets, but we did not retain the original plates so the section could be reproduced later. All later sections have been retained and are reproducable.

This information is now becoming the best single source of information for the carnival collector. The Notebook is divided into sections by items, i.e. Table Sets, Plates, etc. It has a colored picture of each pattern and also lists the maker and the known colors.

A complete listing of the different sections that are available for the Notebook are contained in this section of the bulletin. If you have not kept your Notebook updated, you might want to review the available sections and order the missing ones.

If you do not have a notebook you are missing a very valuable reference source. You do not have to order the complete notebook at one time, any section can be ordered individually.

1995 NOTEBOOK SECTION----PUNCH BOWLS

The initial section of the H.O.A.C.G.A. Notebook was on Punch Sets, but the information required to reproduce the section was not retained. This section was originially printed in 1979 and several members have asked when this information will be available. The section for 1995 will be on Punch Sets.

In order to do the section I will need help from members. Would you please photograph each of your Punch Sets and send the photo to me. Please take the photograph as close to the set as possible so the pattern shows clearly. The main object of the notebook is to show patterns and shapes.

If your have a Punch Set do not be afraid to take a picture of it. The more photographs I receive the better the notebook section will be. All of the various sections have been assembled from photographs sent in be members. So get the trusty brownie and take a photo of your set. We want to include a copy of all known Punch bowl patterns, so do not think that your set is not significant. Sometimes a photograph of the more common sets are the hardest to obtain.

Send your photos to: Bob Grissom, 7900 Crescent, Raytown, Mo 64138.

Thank you for your help.

Bob Grissom

ARGENTINIAN CARNIVAL GLASS

UPDATE---- DOUG PETERS----TREASURER

The Board of Directors agreed to a settlement with the Bonding Company, Western Surety, for $25,000.00. The bonding company wanted a complete audit showing the $30,000.00 loss. Since Doug Peters destroyed all of the clubs financial records, the task of deternining the exact amount of money loss, would be costly and time consuming. In order to prove the total amount of loss requires the necessary legal procedings to obtain access to Doug & Charla Peters personal checking account, and a certified audit by an auditing firm. To follow the trail of deposits and withdrawls through the many bank accounts Doug Peters opened (both club and personal) will take a lot of man hours. The Board thought it prudent to accept the negotiated settlement and then to consider other options available for recovery of any additional loss.

The Board of Directors will discuss, with the clubs attorney, other possibilities for recovering losses in excess of the $25,000.00.

Doug Peters did appear at his arrainment on the charge of stealing on June 22. He did not enter a guilty plea but did admit that there was probably sufficient evidence to say that a crime had been committed. The case was transferred to a differnt section of the Jackson County, Missouri prosecutors office. As of this time a trial date has not been set.
