NEW HOACGA EDUCATIONAL BOOK III

The HOACGA Educational Series Book III is now available. This Educational Series contains articles which were previously printed in the monthly bulletin. The book contains articles written on several different subjects; i.e. Bon Bons, Bowls, Drinking Vessels, Novelties, Rose Bowls, Table Sets, by several different members. Members who contributed articles are Britt, Fry, Kremer, Pickup, Brooks, Roque, Kuhn, Curtis & Briix.

The book contains educational information on about 150 different patterns and it also contains a list of approximately 500 rarities (only 5 or less known). This type of information is not found in any other carnival reference material.

It is a very informative book.

You may order it from: Ed Kramer, Secretary, 4305 W. 78th Street. Prairie Village, KS 66208. Make checks payable to HOACGA

EDUCATIONAL TUMBLER SERIES

By John & Lucile Britt

BEADED SPEARS VARIENTS

The above photo illustrates two different varients of the Beaded Spears tumblers. In the next photo, we show the regular Beaded Spears tumblers for you to see the difference between the Beaded Spears and the Varients. Notice that in the varients that the six circles are in a distinct band that circles around the tumbler while on the regular Beaded Spears tumblers these six circles are somewhat larger and one circle is placed directly in the six spears that point downwards. No band of circles is used near the top on the regular Beaded Spears tumblers.

In size the Beaded Spears varient shown on the left in the photo above is the same size as the larger lemonade Beaded Spears tumbler illustrated in the photo on page 7. The smaller varient on the right is what we call the collar based Beaded Spears Varient. The collar base extends out from the tumbler and contains a lattice type design that we have never seen on the regular Beaded Spears tumblers. The color of both these varients is very unusual. The smaller collar based varient is in a beautiful light blue color. The lemonade size varient appears to be more of an aqua teal color at the top, but the base color leans to a green shade. Whatever color that you might choose to call them, they certainly are very pretty and most unusual.

The four tumblers shown in this article belong to Bob Smith of Boston, MA. He picked them up in India on his recent trip to that country. While on his tour, he also visited Czechoslovakia, Finland, England, and Australia. None of this type of tumblers were even seen in Czechoslovakia.

Bob Smith, after quite a number of years thinking that this group of rather light weight glass tumbler such as Beaded Spears, Australian Daisy, Banded Moon and Stars, Whirls Away, Grapevine and Spikes and Beaded Mirrors were made in India has convinced me that they were made in that country.

A few of this type of tumblers have been found signed with the letters JAIN molded into the bottom surface of the tumbler. This should indicate that the vases such as the Hand and Fish vases that are signed with the JAIN name were also made in India instead of Czechoslovakia.

We have a photo copy of a letter sent to Bob Smith from the Director of the Jain Glass Works (P) Ltd. Firozabad, (India) in which he states that they did indeed make these glass tumblers. The Jain Glass Works called them Lustre glasses and they were made in the 1935 era. More of these patterns that were made in India will be covered from time to time in the Educational Tumbler Series.

This article on the Beaded Spears Varient tumblers is #230 in our Educational Tumbler Series. Next month we will feature the Buzz Saw and File juice glass.

BEWITCHED, BOTHERED AND BEWILDERED

A look at Imperial's 'near cut' geometrics

By Glen and Stephen Thistlewood

"Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered"... so wrote Lorenz Hart, for the Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland musical "Babes in Arms". Well, bewitched, bothered and bewildered is how we felt during our intensive study of 'near cut' geometric patterns in Carnival for a recent issue of our NetworK * journal. Hobstars, file and diamonds began to merge into one another. However, bewildered as we were, we were also enthralled as a fascinating discovery began to develop into an intriguing detective story. These answers would not have emerged but for the recently issued copy of the Imperial catalog of 1909. **

The saga really began when our friends David and Coral Rose (keen Carnival collectors from England) whilst on vacation in Pennsylvania, spied a delightful emerald green bowl tucked away in an antique mall. Small pieces travel easily in carry-on baggage... and so this exquisite little bowl came to the UK with the Roses. They were unsure of the pattern and asked if we could help identify it. Eventually, we found it illustrated (in crystal glass) in the 1909 Imperial catalog, where the items shown are large and small berry bowls, a plate and a nut bowl - they all have the same Imperial pattern number 3437. Rose Presznick showed the piece in her "Carnival and Iridescent Glass Book IV" and called it "Imperial's 3437 - Blaze". The same pattern is also identified as BLAZE in Bill Edward's 5th Edition Carnival Glass Encyclopedia (he suggests the maker to be English, but it is Imperial). However, Marion Hartung shows the identical pattern in her Fourth Book of Carnival Glass - but confusingly, she calls it CRABCLAW!

Our article in NetworK caused collectors to check their geometrics, and within two days we had been called to check out two large berry bowls. Sure enough, one turned out to be a smoke master berry, (see photograph, top of next page) the other a marigold master berry - both are BLAZE, although their owners had previously supposed them to be CRABCLAW after identifying them from Hartung's Book 4. Our conclusion must be - based on the Imperial catalog pattern numbers and their different geometric patterns - that most (if not all) the bowls that are currently thought to be the CRABCLAW pattern are in fact BLAZE.

There is of course a CRABCLAW pattern, which is different from BLAZE. There is a CRABCLAW water pitcher and a matching tumbler (see photograph on page 10) - they are illustrated in the 1909 Imperial catalog and have the pattern number 409. These are probably the only two shapes in the CRABCLAW pattern!

But isn't there also the rare CRABCLAW CRUET? This piece turns up from time to time in the United Kingdom; it is a tall, tapering shape usually found in a good dark marigold that becomes clear at the bottom. We've owned one and have seen several others (are they perhaps not quite as rare as was once thought?). Previously we had assumed the CRABCLAW CRUET pattern to be another shape in that pattern range. However, to our amazement, we spotted the "cruet" in the 1909 Imperial catalog - it had the pattern number 302 and it was described as a "Small decanter" with matching wine glass. We checked more pieces that were shown with the pattern number 302, and discovered one in a shape we recognized. It's a compote in the pattern known to Carnival collectors as HOBSTAR FLOWERS! So, going back to the Cruet or Decanter shape - yes, the pattern elements match perfectly. The CRABCLAW CRUET is in fact a HOBSTAR FLOWER decanter.

(Interestingly, our HOBSTAR FLOWER decanter was married with an OCTAGON stopper - and so was every other one we've seen, which seems to be too many for sheer coincidence!)

So, our conclusion is that there are three distinctly different Imperial geometric patterns, which are illustrated for greater clarity:

CRABCLAW (Imperial #409) - occurs in a pitcher and a tumbler. BLAZE (Imperial #3437) - found in large and small bowls.

Note that it has a very distinctive marie pattern that helps to identify it. There may be other Carnival items that have not yet been identified as BLAZE.

HOBSTAR FLOWER (Imperial #302) - found in a scarce decanter shape and a compote. There could well be other shapes such as a small wine and a goblet.

All these patterns have hobstars and a curving file pattern - which is probably why they have been incorrectly linked before. This mis-identification highlights some of the problems caused by the difficulty in recognizing geometric patterns. The pattern elements frequently change slightly, or in their relationship to one another, to accommodate the different shapes and sizes of Carnival items on which they appear. If you're in the geometric mood, check out some more of Imperial's geometric patterns and you will see that they also have hobstars and a file pattern! CHATELAINE, OCTAGON, FASHION... and so on.

* NetworK journals #12 and #13 covered Geometric patterns. NetworK is available in the USA from PageWorks, PO Box 14493, Chicago, IL 60614 at $20 for four quarterly issues ($5 each). Checks payable to PageWorks please.

NetworK is available elsewhere from G & S Thistlewood, PO Box 83, Alton, Hants, GU34 4YN, England. Price is £11.20 for four quarterly issues, within the United Kingdom. Outside the UK, cost is £15. Cheques or Money Orders (Sterling funds) payable to G. Thistlewood please.

 1909 Imperial Catalog: Thanks to George Allen who found the Catalog pinned page by page, all over the wall of a New Orleans antique shop and passed it to John and Lucile Britt. The Britts, with their generous nature and sharing way, have now issued it for all collectors to learn from.

SOME BAD NEWS

Dear HOACGA,

I'm sorry that I haven't written sooner to let you know my husband Gerald "Red" Logan passed away October 24, 1996.

We have not been active with HOACGA, meetings, conventions and such, but have always enjoyed the bulletin.

Virginia Logan 1619 S. 49th Terr. Kansas City, MO 66106-2313

Dear HOACGA,

It is with a breaking heart that I must report the death of my husband, Robert, on February 6th, 1997. I do not plan to renew our membership in HOACGA. I will probably be selling our small collection, but have made no definite plans at this time.

Bob and I both enjoyed the years we were rather active collectors. Following our retirement budget constraints put an end to our collecting, but we continued to enjoy attending some of the auctions some of the auctions near us, and always enjoyed reading the bulletin.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear HOACGA,

I am sending in my dues early this year while it's on my mind - I don't want to miss even one issue - and my notebook is up-to-date, I think - The last one I got was #1 on vases - Is that the latest?

I do appreciate the great job you folks do for this club, and I thank you.

GOLDEN PRESS WINE BOTTLE

By Greg Dilian

Last summer at an antique flea market in New York State, I came upon the bottle pictured above in a crowd of other bottles.

While I am not a bottle collector, the excellent marigold iridescence of this one warranted me to purchase it, especially since it came bearing the cap and paper label.

I was not sure of the pattern or how to research my find. I checked under Gold Press which appears on the label, research pattern names starting with the word "Keg" as this is what the bottle resembles, and several other possibilities that came to mind (e.g. barrel, wine, etc.).

Finally, I resigned myself to the inevitable. I went through the Hartung series page by page, book by book. Then, lo and behold in Book 6 on page 83 appeared my bottle under the name Peach Wine Bottle. I found this strange as the flavor on my bottle is Blackberry. Now I am aware that in Carnival Glass, items are named according to shape (Jack-in-Pulpit vase), size (Miniature Blackberry compote), or texture (Stippled Rays). This is the first time I have come across something named for the flavor of its contents. Are flavors available other than Peach and Blackberry? It's funny to think of the tangents one's mind takes when he or she collects Carnival Glass.

Anyway, this bottle comes in good, deep marigold and looks like a wine barrel or keg. The mold work is very nice and quite detailed. A row of bunches of grapes circles the upper part of the bottle just before it narrows to the neck. The wine was produced by the New England Wine Company. The volume of wine once contained in the bottle was one quart and the piece is 10½" tall.

I wrote this article to assist anyone who may come upon this bottle, sans label, and have trouble researching it. The bottle with label and metal cap has been selling in the $100 range. It is a nice addition to add to any collection. Maybe, however, the name should be changed to something more descriptive of the glass and not the flavor of the wine.

WHAT IS THE PATTERN?

What is the pattern called on the old piece (above) we acquired? We can't find it in the Edwards book or anything else we have. Who was it made by? Fenton? Birds and Honeysuckle I believe. Much value?

If someone could take the time to help me out, I sure would appreciate it. We have been collecting for about 15 years (it all started by us buying a piece owned by my great-grandmother), but this one has us stumped. We're still learning for sure.

Please send any response to: James R. and Ruth A. Dahlman 80 Par Lane Grand Rapids, MN 55744

TOP TEN

By Gerald Thomas

Looking back at 1996, there were probably three events of significance in the world of Carnival Glass. First, was the discovery and purchase of the only known Aqua Opalescent Grape and cable punch set. Second, was the sale of two Millersburg People's vases in North Carolina. Third, was the rising popularity of Millersburg carnival rarities.

Each year, I scan through the Carnival Glass "Big Bucks" section in Tom and Sharon Mordini's Carnival Glass Auction reports. I like to see what type of glass is on top of the list with respect to collector demand. This year, I couldn't help but notice that 6 out of 10 of the highest selling pieces of Carnival were Millersburg. Usually, Northwood Carnival captures the majority of spots in the top ten sales category. Things may have been different in 1996 because some of the Millersburg rarities have not been offered for sale in recent years. I have always admired the design work in Millersburg carnival and have felt that most Millersburg rarities were under priced. It was nice to see Millersburg on top of the list.

Rising prices for select pieces of Millersburg certainly attest to the rarity and collector value in this unique glassware. Being in the TOP TEN is an honor which Millersburg glassware truly deserves. I suspect we will soon see more Millersburg carnival selling at record prices. Happy glass hunting everyone!

NEW SIZE FOR THE BULLETIN

You will notice that the height (width?) of the bulletin has been reduced by about one inch. With this decrease in size, the bulletin can be mailed at a "letter size" postal rate, which is about a ten percent savings. Three months ago we started having the barcode placed on the address labels which resulted in a small savings also.

These changes were taken in order to reduce the cost of the bulletin. This allows the present membership dues to continue to support the cost of the printing and mailing of the bulletin.

REMEMBERING THE 'GOOD OLE DAYS'

By Pat Call

Those of you who have known us for 30 years can skip this page. You've heard this story before... probably more than once.

One of my favorite recollections of Carnival Glass collecting concerns a little place in Vienna, Virginia that was called "The Swap Shop". In 1967, it carried everything imaginable from household leftovers to perfume and jewelry. It also carried antiques and collectibles if one had the patience to sort through the conglomeration. Monetary credit was given for items brought in to trade, and items could be purchased for a small percentage of additional cash.

We discovered this treasure trove very early in our antiquing experience, when we were "greener than grass". I soon learned how to clean ot my closets and trade my unwanted items for glassware, more particularly Carnival Glass.

Over time, the owner of the shop apparently got wise to the fact that we were rapidly becoming knowledgeable in the field of Carnival Glass and she was reluctant to sell to us, even though she couldn't refuse our money.

On one weekend visit, I spotted an Imperial Grape 9" berry bowl in amber... a color that was unknown to collectors at that time. (And this was before Imperial began making the reissues in that color.) The price was $9.00.

I took it to the counter and the lady said, "You don't want that. It's a repro."

I said, "No... I don't think so. There's no IG on it, and they aren't making anything in this color..."

"That's because Imperial isn't making it," she insisted. "They loaned the moulds to Fenton, and Fenton is doing it for them."

I wasn't about to be deterred. "Well, I'll take my chances." I told her. "Even if it turns out to be new, it would still cost $9.00"

Grudgingly, the lady took my money and wrapped the bowl. After that, when we went into her shop, she decided that she should do no more trading for antiques, and she remembered me not as Mrs. Call, but as Mrs. Cash.

THE IMPERIAL PROCLAMATIONS

By Carl O. Burns

This month's column will be a little different. I would like to take the opportunity to tell the club membership about an upcoming Carnival Glass event. The National Imperial Glass Collector's Society will hold it's annual convention on June 6th, 7th, and 8th, 1997. It will be held at The Hampton Inn. Undo's West and The Belmont Technical College in St. Clairsville, Ohio. The theme of this year's convention will be "Carnival Glass - The Cinderella of Collectibles".

On Sunday, June 8th, I will be presenting the seminar on Old Imperial Carnival Glass, at 9:30 AM, at The Belmont Technical College. I will have roughly 100 pieces of old Imperial Carnival on display. A professional production company, RoCliff Communications, will be video taping the seminars and convention activities. The proceeds from the future sale of these videos will go to the Imperial Glass Museum Fund. I know that there are quite a few of our HOACGA members that also belong to the NIGCS, and I look forward to meeting some of you there. There are many other exciting activities planned including a seminar by several former Imperial Glass Company employees.

There will also be an all glass Show & Sale on Saturday, June 7th, from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM, and on Sunday, June 8th, from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM, at The Belmont Technical College. The NIGCS does this a little different from most conventions. Glass is not sold out of the hotel rooms. This all glass Show & Sale is set up like an Antique Show, in a large hall, with glass dealers from all over the country.

The seminars and the Show & Sale are open to the public, and you need not be an NIGCS member to attend them. As I understand it, the Banquet on Saturday evening is also open to the public. There are other activities, which are for NIGCS members only. These include the Hospitality Room, Social Hours and an Auction. This is the first time that the NIGCS has held a convention with Carnival Glass as it's theme, so it should be quite an event. I hope those HOACGA members who belong to the NIGCS will make plans to attend. If you do not belong to The National Imperial Glass Collectors' Society, why not join? Dues are $15.00 per year and you can obtain more information by writing to N.I.G.C.S., P.O. Box 534, Bellaire, Ohio 43906. Jean Fry is the Membership Chairperson.

"The Imperial Proclamations" column will continue to appear in the bulletin, but on a more sporadic basis, at least temporarily. I am not only involved with this convention, but I am also hard at work on my next book. Hope to meet many of you folks in St. Clairsville in June!!!

MEET JACK AND ELEANOR HAMILTON

He makes jewelry. Together, they make friends. Since they began attending Carnival Glass conventions they have made countless friends all across the United States.

Many of you are already acquainted with the Hamiltons... but would probably like to know more about this interesting couple. HOACGA asked Eleanor if she would share their story... and their Carnival Glass experiences:

"Jack and I were both born in Texas. I am a native Wacoan and Jack was born in Sherman and moved to Waco when he was eight years old. We met in elementary school in the fifth grade, and we went through Junior High and High School together.

Jack joined the U.S. Marine Corps in 1942 during World War II. He was stationed in Australia and joined the First Marine Division after the Battle of GuadalCanal. He stayed with the First Division and made the initial landing on Okinawa on Easter Sunday, April 1, 1945. He returned to the states and was discharged in November of 1945. Soon after that we started dating and were married on April 6, 1946. We celebrated our fiftieth wedding anniversary last year. We have a daughter and a grandson.

Jack worked for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company for thirty eight years... retiring in 1983.

Back in 1961 on our fifteenth wedding anniversary, Jack gave me a Raspberry water set in amethyst. He paid $40.00 for this seven piece set.

My first four pieces of Carnival Glass had belonged to my paternal grandmother. They are a green Singing Birds mug and three amethyst Acorn Burrs berry bowls. My grandparents came to Texas from Germany. They bought a farm about twenty miles south of Waco sometime before the first World War. My grandparents and their six children would come into Waco in a horse drawn wagon once a month to do their shopping. In between these trips a country peddler would come by the various farms with all kinds of things to sell, such as pots, pans, needles, thread, etc. If you bought several items, the peddler would give you a gift - a piece of carnival glass. I know that Grandma must have made at least four nice purchases. I enjoyed the beauty of her glass but did not know it was Carnival Glass for several years until I saw an article that was published in our local newspaper about Carnival Glass. I realized that this was the type of glass that I had. I went to the library and checked out several books about Carnival. That's when I really became interested in the glass.

We have a large collection consisting of bowls, water sets, 9½" plates and compotes. Most of our pieces are small plates and miniatures. My favorite small plate is a green 7½" smooth edge Scroll Embossed, wit the reverse pattern of Hobstar and Tassels. Only two of these plates are know at this time. Two of my favorite miniatures are a Tiny Covered Hen, marigold, 2½" x 2" and a Child's Candelabra. The Hen belonged to a local collector in Waco, and she had purchased it from Rose Presznick. The Child's Candelabra which is 4½" high and 4½" across, marigold, was purchased by us at one of John and Lucile Britt's auctions.

Jack likes the Carnival Glass Whiskey bottles. We have quite a few, including all five of the Gold Wedding sizes, from the half gallon to the nip bottle which was a salesman's sample. All are empty now.

We attend four or five glass conventions a year. Texas Carnival Glass convention, HOACGA, SDCCGC, ICGA, ACGA, LLCGC, and ACCGC. Of course we enjoy the glass, but we always look forward to meeting a lot of nice people.

Our first large convention was in 1981. It was the ACGC when Emma Tilton was president. She made these "red necks" from Texas very welcome. We met Ed and Betty Pierce from Penn. and Jack and Geraldine Brown from California... and have been close friends with them since then. These are just some of the nice people that have been met at conventions. Jack is past president of our Texas club... and I have been a seminar speaker at our TCGC, HOACGA, and SDCGC. We have won awards for our glass displays at several of these conventions.

Jack makes jewelry from broken pieces of Carnival Glass. Chris Harnish gave him a lot of tips when he was learning how to make jewelry. Jack also likes to bowl with a Senior Citizens league.

The one piece of Carnival Glass that I would most like to own - if price was not a factor - the Millersburg Olympic compote.

We are looking forward to seeing many of you at the HOACGA convention in May."

PICTORIAL PATTERN PARADE

By John & Lucile Britt

COIN SPOT COMPOTE IN CELEST BLUE

Coin Spot is a simple pattern consisting of alternate rows of indented stippled ovals and plan flat panels. The stem is rather ornate with a finial placed midway down. The finial contains eight of the stippled coin spots that circles the stem. The top of the compote contains eight ruffles. Some examples are flattened out a little more than others.

The colors that we have seen in these compotes are marigold, peach opal, purple, cobalt blue, ice green, blue stretch and our featured celest blue. The cobalt blue examples are hard to find. An example of that color is shown in the Dugan/Diamond book on page 106. The blue stretch and ice green examples are also very hard to find. We haven't seen many of our featured celest blue compotes around either. They are very pretty and most desirable. One of these sold at auction for $700.00 in 1994 and another brought $850 in 1996. These are the only two examples in celest that have been reported sold in the auction reports since 1985.

In the above photo, we show this piece in the goblet shape in ice green. It will really glow under a black light and is certainly a rare piece of carnival glass. I believe that when these coin spot pieces came out of the mold that they were all in this shape and this is one that didn't have the ruffling out tool used on it.

This article on the Coin Spot compotes is our 220'th entry into the Pictorial Pattern Parade. We hope that you have found it interesting. Next month we will cover the rare and beautiful Five Hearts compote.

MILLERSBURG SWIRL HOBNAIL

By Alan & Lorraine Pickup

There is a saying that pretty things come in small packages. And that saying certainly is appropriate in the case of this rose bowl and spittoon. There are many patterns that require some expertise on the part of the collector to name the pattern and maker. This is not one of them. The Millersburg Swirl Hobnail rose bowl is easily recognized by most collectors. And this easy recognition factor may be part of its charm and popularity.

The simplest designs can be the most beautiful. Patterns with hobs seemed to be favored with many of the glass makers and the addition of the swirls not only compliments the hobs but intensifies the iridescence.

This pattern is also available in a swung vase shape and it is obvious that the three shapes were all made from the same mould. Marie McGee's Millersburg Glass book makes reference to a larger Swirl Hobnail "whimsey" rose bowl but doesn't picture it. Does it exist? Or was she thinking of the Hobnail rose bowl and vase "variant", that she points out may be questionable for some collectors.

Swirl Hobnail is considered by some as rare in all shapes and colors. But the use of the description rare we feel is a little overworked. The rose bowl and spittoon shapes are found in marigold and amethyst. A green spittoon with chips sold recently for $7000 in a Cooper/Albrecht auction in Flint, Michigan. The swung vase can be found in the three colors listed and is also reported in blue. We certainly would class a blue vase and the green spittoon as quite rare. But whether or not all Swirl hobnail pieces are rare or just awfully scarce, they are a nice addition to any collection.

The purpose of the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association is to promote the growth and continuation of the Carnival Glass collecting hobby and to provide support to the many collectors by providing current information about the hobby.

Growth is accomplished by supplying educational information for the collector and soliciting new collectors into the hobby.

With the exception of 1997, when the Convention is to be May 1, 2, 3 and 4, a Convention is held annually in April in conjunction with the annual meeting (Convention date always includes the 4th Friday). Some of the activities provided at the convention are:

MARCH 1997 REGULAR HOACGA MONTHLY MEETING

The next regular meeting of the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association will be on Sunday, March 23, 1997 at 2:00 P.M. at the Holiday Inn across from the Sports Complex in K.C., MO (I-70 and Blue Ridge Cutoff). We will discuss Chop Plates.

Twenty members including Joe and Shirley Williams from Prairie City, Iowa, attended the February 23, 1997 meeting. After the business part of the meeting and a break for coffee and cookies, president Bob Grissom led a discussion of thirty pieces of carnival glass with cherries and hearts (for February). We had several Hearts and Vines bowls and Three Fruits bowls in varying colors and lots of other patterns represented. Harold Mayes won the door prize, a marigold sauce in Fruits and Flowers.

We look forward to seeing you at the March meeting with your Chop Plates. You have plenty of time to buy one if you don't have one (just kidding). We'd be happy to see you without a Chop Plate.
