A potential HOACGA member was born 5/28/00, the day of the May HOACGA meeting. Bob Grissom's daughter Melissa and her husband Mike Alleman had their first child Mya Rosa. Congratulations to the entire Grissom family. If you care to drop a note, the address is inside the front cover.

Bulletin Secretary Change

By Bob Grissom

Tom Limback has served as the HOACGA Bulletin Secretary for the past eighteen months. During that time Tom has worked to produce the bulletin on time and through a major change in the way it had to be processed. He has had to adjust his schedule at work when it was time to get the bulletin to the printer, processed, and to the Post Office for mailing on the fifteenth of each month. He has been willing to do whatever necessary to make sure the bulletin was out on the day it was supposed to be. Because of additional duties added to his work schedule he found it necessary to remove himself from some of his extra responsibilities. We want to thank Tom for his work in seeing that the bulletin was delivered on time each month.

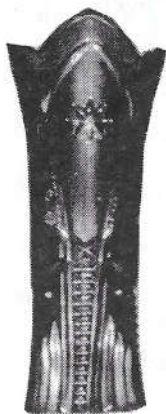

Eleanor Mochel will be the Bulletin Secretary, effective June 20. Eleanor has previously served as the club's Bulletin Secretary. Eleanor will serve the club well. Information for the July bulletin should be sent to:

"Bishop's Mitre" Vase

By Bob Grissom

Bob Bishop of Dracut, MA has come up with another unusual and rare piece of carnival. He did not know what it was until his friend Bob Smith of Boston was telling the Thistlewoods about the vase. Since any carnival glass piece must have a name, the Thistlewoods named it "Bishop's Mitre".

The vase is blue and stands 8" tall, has a 3 1/2" top opening, and a 2 1/2" bottom diameter with RIIHMIAKI molded on the base in block letters, with two dots over the A. This is the only known vase with the molded Riihmiaki trademark.

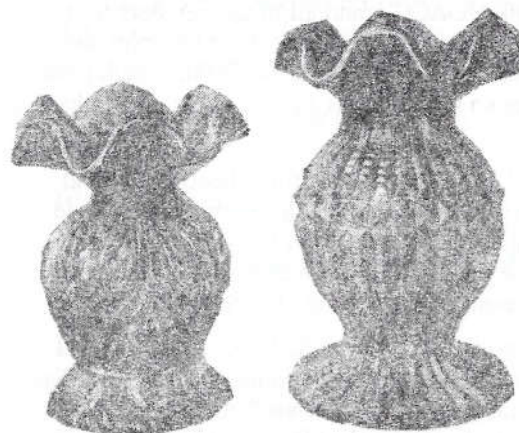

There is an arch on opposite sides of the vase with star at the top of the arch with steps leading to the star. The other two sides of the vase is pyramid shaped that is stippled. Within the pyramid there 4 blades of grass with three air bubbles above them.

Bob sent a photograph of the vase and it is included in the fifth section of the HOACGA notebook, vase # 299. It is also shown in Network # 15, which is a publication by Glen and Steven Thistlewood.

Unusual Shapes

By Alan & Lorraine Pickup

Here are two very similar shaped small vases made by the Imperial Glass Company that we believe qualify for the unusual shape category. They were certainly not true whimsies as they were apparently made in considerable number. The File pattern comes close to being a whimsy as some writers believe that it was shaped from a spooner or covered sugar. But many patterns are first pressed in a basic shape and then hand formed into a large variety of shapes. File was made in many different shapes and colors, used as both a primary and secondary pattern. However, this corseted vase is found only in a nice dark marigold. It is considered relatively scarce but we still don't consider it a whimsy. There is a term production whimsy bantered about that might apply here, but that is as far as we could go. The current price range for these in the past two years is between $250 and $550.

The Rococo vase, on the other hand, is much easier to find and comes in several colors. Marigold and smoke are the two common colors with a rare lavender reported now and then. This vase shape in our opinion was made from the small ruffled candy dish that can be found occasionally. The glass worker that came up with this corseted shape was creative, to say the least. Prices today for a marigold example run from a low of $70 to a high of $180. The smoke vase has a range of $175 to $390.

Carol's Top Ten Reasons

By Carol Cinclair

Once again, I would like to thank HOACGA and all of its members for the extraordinary opportunity to be selected as the recipients of the John and Lucille Britt Award for Excellence in Carnival Glass for 2000. The luncheon was a real joy, and everyone was so kind. It was a day that neither Richard or I will ever forget.

At the luncheon, I spoke of my "Top Ten" reasons for collecting carnival glass. The list was modeled on the David Letterman pattern, as I counted down from the least to most important reason. After the luncheon, many people commented to me that they really enjoyed hearing my ideas and were thinking about their own top reasons for collecting. Several asked if they could have a copy of my list.

One of the interesting points about my list is that I do not include "the chase" as one of my reasons for collecting. In fact, "the chase" makes me nervous and I find it to be unnecessarily competitive. But Richard would certainly include it on his "Top Ten" list. Isn't it good that we are all different!

So now I would ask people, once again, to think about their own top ten reasons, then read through my list and see which ones are true for you. If anyone wants to write to me and add reasons to the list, I will try to compile what everyone says and see if the list needs to be expanded.

Here we go:

Carol Cinclair's Top Ten Reasons for Collecting Carnival Glass

10. It's a lot better than collecting Beanie Babies.
9. It's a great way to decorate our home.
This implies that there is some decorating going on and the glass isn't stuck in a box under one's bed or stacked one on top of the other on a table.
8. It's a conversation generator when friends and relatives visit.
7. It's a source of travel – conventions and auctions.
6. It's a good investment.
We get to spend our money and keep it too. If an emergency comes along and we ever need the money, we can sell the glass and retrieve our original investment.
5. It has aesthetic value.
It really is a piece of art that is beautiful to look at. We are just caretakers of museum quality glass. Eventually, someone else will own all of it. So we need to carefully care for it.

4. It's a stress reducer.
Just like a person's blood pressure goes down when they stroke a cat or a dog or hold a baby. Looking at our collection is very relaxing. (Unless one is stressing about the piece of glass that got away at the last sale.)
3. It's a creative outlet for our energy.
We can collect in unique ways, according to color, pattern, maker, shape, etc...
2. It's a rich source of friends.
We can literally go almost any place in the world and know someone who is collecting. We can visit their home, see their glass, and share a common interest.
1. It's a passion that I share with my spouse.
There is an old saying that the family that prays together stays together. Well, I think that the couple that collects together stays together too. Richard and I have a common interest. We'll never be like the little old couple who sits at the breakfast table, reading the paper with nothing to say to one another. There is always one more piece out there that we need to get and we can sit and plot our plan together.

On the Auction Trail with Chuck

By Chuck Kremer

"A Breath of Fresh Air"

April 26-30, 2000: You have read the good reviews of the HOACGA Convention and I do not want to detract from that, but want to add my two-cents worth. Yes, the convention was every bit as good as described with the spectacular 200 plus nine-inch plate display and the super room displays.

And then there was the auction – what more could one ask? It had about the right number of pieces, good glass, some record prices and over $310,000 gross. The Burns Auction team can be proud of the overall sale. And then there was the added touch – the "breath of fresh air." I was sitting in the back and noticed when the runners slowed down, a young lady stepped up and ran a few pieces. Who was this person? I had never seen her before, but late in the sale she sold a few pieces. She was an auctioneer too and very capable. Debra Jo Hughes from the West Coast (Oregon) caught my attention and that of a few others also. She also sold a few of the whimsies at the banquet. A nice change of pace. Come back Debra, our hobby can use your enthusiasm.

Hello From Iowa

By Vicki Gearhart

Well another great convention has come and past. The time spent visiting with old and new friends is always the best.

We always set up a display and enjoy receiving the free little carnival spittoon for our efforts. Of course, the displays this year were great. I really think HOACGA displays are always the most elaborate and beautiful. I am sure the $50 prize incentive helps people try too. Not to say we are after the money, but it is nice to see people win nice prizes for their efforts. We won $50 last year and it was appreciated and quickly spent in a room on carnival glass. So that was fun.

The auction glass this year was wonderful. The great colors, rarities and nice selection were all there. We didn't get anything at the auction but wouldn't have missed it for anything. To me, the biggest surprise was that the Electric Blue Peacocks Master ICS bowl brought $7,250. That is an example of what great color can do for an item. That item would normally sell around $1500-$3000 but this was more than doubled in final price. Really surprised the crowd.

It seems we are all getting educated and only want to buy items with great color. It continued to show at Mickey's auction on May 6th. Prices again held on the high end on all items with good color. I would say prices are definitely on an upward trend and it's the sellers' market right now. Buyers are going to have to pay good prices for the good pieces.

I would say this hobby is staying strong. I do think red prices are a little lower than in the past and the pastels and opals are really hitting the high end. Of course, the ones with electric iridescence are always topped out in price. Rarities are not always in demand as much as items with high desirability. The items that are pleasing to the eye are the ones that seem to really hold on to the high prices.

I once saw a phrase written "Rare, who cares item" and that is sometimes the case. You may have an item that is rare, but if people don't find it attractive it won't do too well in value. Of course, all I have written is just my opinion. We are all entitled to them right?

The glass in the rooms at the HOACGA convention was nice too. A lot of glass for sale, both old carnival and some rooms had contemporary carnival since their convention is held just days before HOACGA some stay to sell to the HOACGA collectors.

Some people don't care for the contemporary carnival. But a lot of us enjoy both. I have mostly old carnival but I do have one cabinet with contemporary carnival, including souvenirs and newer Fenton Art Glass I also enjoy.

We can enjoy collecting many items. I saw some Armani figures in one room at the convention, absolutely beautiful. My husband will probably frown if I decide to include that into my collecting habits. No matter what a person collects it really doesn't matter whether it's carnival or dolls. As long as you enjoy it and make friends that is what it's all about.

What would we do if we didn't collect? I just can't imagine not having so many fun friends to meet with on occasion. This is a good hobby. Yes, it can be expensive or not. No matter the size of your wallet you always feel welcome in the group. We all have the common interest of the love of the glass. And we do love pretty carnival.

I think there is nothing more impressive than to walk into a home and have the collectors share their pretty glass with you and they tell you about their collection with a child like shining sparkle in their eyes no matter what age they may be. It's kind of like the look a child has on Christmas morning as they wait to open that first present. That is what the joy of carnival is all about. This is a cool hobby, enjoy!!

Ode to the Jolly Ole Cinclairs

At the Britt Award Luncheon Nona Glass Taylor read the following "Ode to the Jolly Ole Cinclairs". We thought that you might enjoy seeing it.

'Twas the night before HOACGA and all through the hotel,
Members were hugging, greeting, to show and to tell.
Carnival glass was displayed in the suite with great care
In hopes that the Cinclairs soon would be there.

When outside your window you heard such a noise
And you saw the Cinclairs looking for more toys.
Visions of carnival glass dancing in each head,
Not finding an Aqua Opal Peacock was Richard's only dread.

Well, back in the sixties, South Dakota was called home
And Richard with a Ph.D. in history started to roam.
When not competing at tennis, he visited auctions at farms,
Back then, Ooo-ing at antique cars sent his wallet into alarms.

Their first collection started was listed as marigold and "dark",
But sold it when their three boys threw footballs as a lark.
Then, moving to Texas they started to collect once again,
Found an estate-sale ad in the paper and said, "Amen."

In 1998 the second collection was sold from South Echo Trail
Having money for new home on Briar Hollow for their mail.
It's now to that third collection that they wish to add,
So, they look, seek, and find – new pieces to make them glad.

Then what to Carol's wandering eyes should appear:
Her big dream, an Owl hatpin — you have one? You'd be a dear!
When not teaching college English and ESL,
She's searching, too, that elusive piece on which to dwell.

Though not a native Texan, Richard was quite nice
And Texas Carnival Glass Club had him as president – twice.
Also, not as handsome as the monthly cover of GQ,
His ponytail and earring gave Floyd Whitley something to do.

Floyd poked fun and ribbed Richard to many banquet's delight
While Richard put barbers out of business, both left and right.
During all this time, Carol maintained her ladylike grace;
Always kind and gracious, in style, and a smile on her face.

Now, Richard has moved up to preside at the ICGA;
Des Moines, be aware; the Cinclairs will brighten your day.
He writes the colored inserts appreciated by all,
Helps Dave Doty with pictures — expect the next in the Fall.

When at some strange time you hear a ring at your doorbell,
It's probably the Cinclairs arriving, wishing you well,
There to visit, view your collection, and have stories to share.
They do love carnival glass and for the "Search" they do care.

So, now it's to the friends, the stores, auctions, and the Mall
That they dash away, dash away, dash away all.
More rapid than eagles their eyes on pieces came
As they observed, smiled, appreciated, calling them by name.

On Robin, on Peacock, on Roses, Stag and Holly,
On Heron, on Farmyard, on Acorn — none of them folly.
Now, they spring to Richard's cute little convertible of red
Discussing iridescence and quality finds is all that they said.

So, we here the Cinclairs exclaim as they leave our sight,
"Carnival glass here, carnival glass there, all day and all night,
Whether you're walking, driving, or in airplanes in flight,
It's Happy Searching to All, and to All a Good Night."

Nona Glass Taylor

Vases — HOACGA Notebook Insert

By Bob Grissom

The fifth vase section of the HOACGA Notebook is now available. This section covers the remaining part of the alphabet (Trumpet thru Z), and the non-U.S. vases, which were not previously reported. It reports on an additional forty-four of the non-U.S. patterns. The non-U.S. patterns have gained popularity in the past few years and are now appearing on the sale bill at many of the carnival glass auctions. The five vase sections report on three hundred forty one (341) vase patterns. Copies of this latest section, or any of the other sections, may be ordered from the club secretary Ann McMorris. The ordering information is included in this bulletin, see "Order Form - Books", under the club section (colored pages).

Sixth Vase Section: Some of the vases were not included in the first five sections, because they were not available at the time the section was being prepared. If you have any vases that are not pictured in the first sections, please photograph them and send me a photograph along with whatever pertinent information that you have. If you do not know anything about the vase please send a photograph of the vase, maybe I can find someone that will know something about it. The intent is to identify as many vases as is possible. If you have a vase and do not send a photograph it cannot be included. This section may have a lot of "Maker & Pattern Unknown" listed but it would be good to at least show the vase. Most of the carnival glass started out as unknown but with the continuing research it will be identified. SO GET THAT VASE OUT AND SEND IT'S PHOTOGRAPH FOR THE NEXT SECTION: This next section will probably conclude the vase information.

Correction

The winner for the "Same Pattern" Display award was Arnold & Dorothy Snell.

Our apologies for this omission.

CORRESPONDENCE

Hi,

Along with the dues check, I'd thought I would tell you how much I enjoy the newsletter. It just seems to get better every year. I appreciate all the effort that goes into it.

Thank you all, keep up the good work.

Steve Sivonda • Middletown, CT

Dear Ann,

Please send me (2) two 2000 Souvenir Plates. My check for $82.00 enclosed.

I enjoy HOACGA newsletter every month and appreciate all the hard work each person puts into it. Thanks to each of you.

Jeanette L. Echols • Marietta, GA

Ann,

I love being a HOACGA member and don't want to miss a single issue of the magazine. I feel I'm a novice collector but got my love of carnival from a dear, dear neighbor and friend, Kate Mentor. When I was in the 2nd grade, Kate & Hal Mentor moved in next door to my family. Having no children they were a bit overwhelmed with the five Stewart kids next door – but we grew to love one another – like family.

Kate was an avid collector. I bought several pieces from her as I began to value this beautiful carnival glass. Kate & Hal are both deceased now. I miss them both but am so thankful for the privilege of knowing them. Even as her health failed, when Kate spoke about carnival her eyes sparkled! Just like the glass.

Martha Lawson • Jackson, TN

Dear Ann,

We thoroughly enjoy the HOACGA Bulletin and all the articles & glass for sale ads. We wish we could have attended the convention this year, but hope to make it next year.

Best wishes to all.

Dick & Diane Wetherbee

Please renew my membership for another year. The color insert is a welcome addition.

Rick McInnis

Dear Ann McMorris,

It's time to renew my membership to HOACGA. We looked forward to receiving the bulletin each month. My husband and I, both have our own carnival glass collections, so I have to hide the bulletin until I get it read, before I give it to him. Thank goodness the other collections we both have are not the same.

Convention Notes – April HOACGA Convention

By Ed Kramer

Twenty-eight members brought plates from their collections for a spectacular plate display on Thursday and Friday of the HOACGA convention. In all 210 plates were on display it was estimated the value of the display was approximately $600,000. Tom Burns discussed the plates Friday morning to a standing room only crowd of about 200. The display and talk are available on video tape. Norma Strohm got the following photo which gives an idea of the size of the display.

Heart of America Carnival Glass Association Annual Meeting – April 28, 2000

Embassy Suites Hotel – Kansas City, Missouri

President Bob Grissom called the meeting to order and announced that one of the requirements of the bylaws is that an annual meeting be held on the fourth Friday in April each year.

Minutes of the April 23, 1999 meeting were read and approved.

Treasurer Cliff Ball reported on the income and expenses of the HOACGA fiscal year from March 1, 1999 through February 28, 2000. He displayed pie charts on income and expenses which showed that 29% of income is from membership dues; 27% from sale of educational materials, tapes and souvenirs; 26% from convention income and remainder from miscellaneous sources. Cliff noted that former treasurer Doug Peters had completed payment of his reimbursement to the club - which accounted for the income from miscellaneous sources.

On expenses - 48% on newsletter; 14% on mailing educational materials, videos and souvenirs; 44% on convention. Cliff noted that many members donate their time and travel to prepare for the convention, send the newsletter and many other projects.

Cliff noted some of the anticipated expenses for the coming year would be an increase in postage cost for the newsletter and the 2000 roster has been published. Speaker fee has been increased from $250 to $300. The audit service reported all records in order. Treasurer's report was approved.

Election for Treasurer, Vice President and Bulletin Secretary were held. Names in nomination were Gene Cox as Vice President, Cliff Ball as Treasurer and Tom Limback as Bulletin Secretary. Additional nominations were sought from the floor. None were forthcoming and all those in nomination were elected to serve two year terms.

President asked for input on program for next year's convention, announced forthcoming conventions of other clubs and urged members to write articles for the bulletin.

Adjournment.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann McMorris, Secretary

HOACGA Monthly Meeting

The May 28, 2000 monthly meeting of HOACGA at the Prairie Village Community Center was attended by 11 members.

Secretary McMorris read the minutes of the March 26 meeting.

Treasurer's report prepared by Cliff Ball was presented by Ed Kramer. Cliff and JoAnn were enjoying a trip to western Kansas over the long weekend.

Some discussion on refunding on convention cancellations. Consensus the club continue their current policy of refunding if notification is made before the convention.

Bob reported that Tom Limback has requested being relieved of Bulletin Editor duties. This position requires accumulation of incoming articles for bulletin and getting them to the printer each month. Ed Kramer proofs the bulletin. Eleanor Mochel agreed to serve as Bulletin Editor starting with the July 2000 issue.

Bob asked for input on any problems encountered with the Embassy Suites during the April convention.

Looking to the 2001 convention, suggestions for the 2001 Display were (1) regular pitchers, (2) water sets, (3) table sets, (4) Northwood pitchers. An auction for 2001 Convention is still being sought.

Bob reported Dave Doty is working on the next two color inserts.

The program was on flowered pieces. Over two dozen beautiful pieces were provided for this display by several members. The door prize was won by Doris Mayes. Refreshments were provided by Ed Kramer. Next month's meeting will be on June 25 and the program will be on Red/White/Blue pieces.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann McMorris, Secretary

Heart of America Carnival Glass Association Board Minutes – June 1, 2000

The Board met on June 1, 2000 at 3:30 p.m at Lawrence, KS. Present were President Bob Grissom, Treasurer Cliff Ball, and Secretary Ann McMorris.

NEWSLETTER — Discussed various articles to be included in the June newsletter. More articles from members are needed. The subject could cover any phase of carnival glass collecting - auction happening, pieces found, humorous occasions, biography, collector's picture with glass and how it all began, etc. Color inserts will be included in the July and September issues.

CONVENTION 2000 — Discussed any problems noted during the convention. Coordination with hotel staff in setting up display room and moving of registration desk were two areas of concern. The menus for lunch and banquet were much better but service still slow. Checking out and getting carts was also still a problem. Secretary reported on the Souvenir Plate sales. Approximately 25 plates remain to be sold.

CONVENTION 2001 — Advance planning is underway for the 2001 convention. It will be held at Embassy Suites in Kansas City and speakers for three programs have been obtained. Other matters discussed were the special display, the arrangements at the hotel for various events, the Britt award recipient, and an auction. Auctioneers Burns, Seck and Reichel will be contacted for a possible one collection auction.

BRITT AWARD — A criteria for selecting the John & Lucile Britt Award nominees was drafted by Cliff Ball. After considerable discussion, the proposed guidelines were approved.

FUTURE CONVENTIONS — Bob Grissom will meet with the Embassy Suites to lock in dates for HOACGA conventions in 2002, 2003, 2004 and room rates.

BOARD MEETINGS — Bob proposed that a set time be determined for the monthly board meeting. Consensus the monthly meeting will be held on the fourth Thursday of each month starting at Noon with lunch at the Holiday Inn in Lawrence. Due to the June meeting falling during the ICGA convention, the June Board meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 27.

BULLETIN SECRETARY — Tom Limback has resigned as bulletin secretary. Moved and seconded, the Board accept Tom Limback's resignation as bulletin secretary and approve the appointment of Eleanor Mochel as bulletin secretary, effective June 20, 2000, until the next election. Motion carried.

NEW PROJECT — Interviewing collectors and including pictures of collectors with their glass was considered as a special feature of the newsletter. Also considered purchase of a digital camera for use in this project.

CREDIT CARD — Bob proposed that the club apply for a credit card for the use of the Secretary. The billing would go directly to the Treasurer and the Secretary would provide receipts to the Treasurer for the items charged. Board approved Bob checking into this matter.

MONTHLY MEETING — HOACGA members are urged to attend the monthly meetings, held on the last Sunday of each month at 2:00 p.m. at the Prairie Village Community Center, 7700 Mission Road, Prairie Village, KS. Board approved placing an ad in the Kansas City paper to promote this meeting.

June Board meeting will be held on June 27, 2000, 12:00 Noon at Holiday Inn, Lawrence, KS.

Adjournment.

Ann McMorris, Secretary

HOACGA Club Information

The purpose of the Heart of America Carnival Glass Association is to promote the growth and continuation of the Carnival Glass collecting hobby and to provide support to the many collectors by providing current information about the hobby.

Growth is accomplished by supplying educational information for the collector and soliciting new collectors into the hobby.

A Convention is held annually in April in conjunction with the annual meeting (Convention date always includes the 4th Friday). Some of the activities provided at the convention are:

- Members provide Room Displays with glass from their collection.
- Members are encouraged to bring glass for Sale.
- Educational Seminars are provided by members.
- A Major Carnival Glass Auction is provided.
- The Convention offers members an opportunity to meet new collectors, renew old friendships and enjoy discussing carnival glass with other knowledgeable collectors.
- A banquet is held with a Carnival Collector as our Speaker.
- A Hospitality time is provided by the club. This is a time of relaxation and visiting with other members.

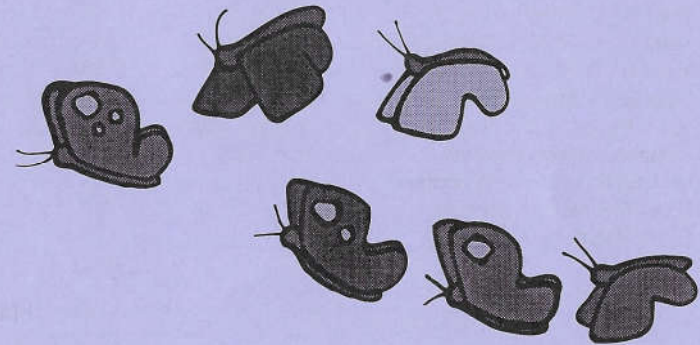

It takes the support of all collectors and members to promote the hobby in order that its growth and expansion can continue.

In order to obtain our objective, the members must financially support the organization. The Heart of America Carnival Glass Association receives its financial support through the Annual Membership dues and the sale of the following.

- Membership Dues – $25.00 per year U.S. & Canada. $40.00 per year for foreign. The Membership Year is from the date of joining to one year later. Dues are set by the Board of Directors to support the publication of the monthly bulletin, typing, printing and mailing.

They are listed in the center section of the bulletin. Each year that Souvenirs are made, Whimseys are also made and sold at the convention banquet.
- Video Tapes – Video Tapes of educational programs given during the various conventions are available. A complete listing of the available video tapes are shown on the Order Form, which is part of this section of the Bulletin.
