

ADVERTISING WORKSHEET

COMPANY NAME: GREENGARD FURNITURE Co.
 STREET: 11020 MICHIGAN AVE
 CITY-STATE: ROSELAND, ILLINOIS
 BUSINESS TYPE: FURNITURE SALES
 WORDING AS SHOWN: GREENGARD FURNITURE Co. 11020 MICH. AVE. ROSELAND, ILL.

SHAPES KNOWN: BOWL - DOUBLE H/6 - PLATE

MAKER: MILLERSBURG

BACK PATTERN: WIDE PANEL

COMMENTS: VERY RARE - 1 BOWL - 2 DOUBLE H/6 - 1 ~~PLATE~~ KNOWN

ROSELAND IS NOW AN INCORPORATED PART OF CHICAGO.

ATtribution IS BY VIRTUE OF THE SMOOTH, UNSERRATED EDGE

BOWL 500-650 600-800
 H/6 650-800 800-1000
 PLATE ~~300-950~~

CHICAGO HISTORICAL SOCIETY
 1600 N. CLARK ST at North Ave
 CHICAGO, ILL 60614

CHICAGO LIBRARY
 1-312-269-2913

ROSELAND LIB. 1-312 995-1700 -
 NO DATA

PULLMAN BRANCH 95-0110
 CULTURAL CENTER 1-312-269-2926
 SPECIAL COLLECTIONS 1-312-269-2830
 DATA COMING -
 NADA

Chicago Historical Society

Chicago Historical Society
Clark Street at North Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60614
312-642-4600

September 8, 1989

John Resnik
10031 Banner Lava Cap
Nevada City, CA 95959

Dear Mr. Resnick:

I am writing in response to your letter regarding the Greengard Furniture Company.

The only material I have been able to find from our card catalog or clipping files is the enclosed obituary for a Charles Greengard. One hint on the date is that Roseland, Illinois became part of the city of Chicago in 1889.

I hope that this information is helpful to you. Good luck with your research.

Sincerely,

Emily Clark
Assistant Librarian

BANKER EDGAR GREENEBAUM IS DEAD AT 75

Retired Leader Aided Many Civic Groups

Edgar N. Greenebaum, 75, of 2400 Lakeview av., retired Chicago investment banker, died yesterday in Palm Springs, Cal., where he was vacationing.

Mr. Greenebaum, who was widely known in Chicago business and civic life, was associated with the Greenebaum Investment company thruout his career and was president of the company from 1934 to 1955.

Everett D. Graff

A memorial service for Everett D. Graff, 78, of 20 Fox lane, Winnetka, who died Wednesday while vacationing in Rome, will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Winnetka Congregational church, 725 Pine st., in the suburb. He was the retired president and chairman of the executive committee of Joseph T. Ryerson & Son, 2558 16th st., a subsidiary of the Inland Steel company. Mr. Graff was active in the Art institute, Newberry library, and WTTW, Channel 11, the educational television station. Surviving are his widow, Verde; a son, Robert; and two daughters, Mrs. William C. Childs and Mrs. Charles B. Nevins.

Mrs. Margaret W. Speyer

Services for Mrs. Margaret

O B I T U A R I E S

Wallace Streeter

Wallace Streeter, 82, former secretary and law partner of the late Sen. J. Hamilton Lewis, died yesterday in Easton, Md., where he had lived for two years. Mr. Streeter was a referee in bankruptcy of the federal District court here from 1932 to 1962. He was Lewis' law partner for several years and was his secretary during the senator's first terms in office. Surviving are his widow, Ann; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Ohlson and Mrs. Herbert Peterson; and a son, Kent. Burial will be in Arlington National cemetery.

James L. Schalla

Services for James L. Schalla, retired butter and egg broker and member of the Chicago Mercantile exchange, were held

Charles Greengard

Charles Greengard, 80, of 1673 Pratt Blvd., retired retail furniture dealer, died yesterday in Weiss Memorial hospital. Mr. Greengard, who lived in Chicago for 79 years, retired 10 years ago as a partner in M. Greengard & Sons Furniture store, 3400 S. Halsted st. He was a trustee of Bickur Cholem lodge. Both the firm and the lodge were founded by Mr. Greengard's father, Max. Surviving are his widow, Dora; a daughter, Mrs. Louise Palmer; two sons, Jerome and Willard; five grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; three brothers; and four sisters. Services will be held at 1 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 1300 Devon av.

D. Arthur Biddle

Graveside services for D.

BANK VETERAN LICHTENSTEIN RITES PLANNED

Private funeral services for Dr. Walter Lichtenstein, 83, retired Chicago economist and banker, will be held Monday in Cambridge, Mass. He died Friday in his Cambridge home.

He was a former vice president of the First National Bank of Chicago. Dr. Lichtenstein was awarded the order of merit two years ago by the West German republic for his work in helping to revive the German economy after World War II.

Served N. U. Library He was honorary curator of the German history collection

DEATH

Balaban

Otto J. Balaban, beloved husband of Lillian Balaban, died yesterday at 1:30 p. m. at the Chicago Hospital, 6301 W. Belmont, Mount Carmel, Ill. 60641.

Baldwin

Etta M. Baldwin, formerly of Chicago, died yesterday at 10:30 a. m. at the Westphal Funeral Home, 3111 N. Paulina, Indianapolis, Ind. She was a former vice president of the First National Bank of Chicago. Dr. Lichtenstein was awarded the order of merit two years ago by the West German republic for his work in helping to revive the German economy after World War II.

Barrett

Jeanette E. Barrett, beloved wife of Walter J. Barrett, died yesterday at 10:30 a. m. at the Chicago Hospital, 6301 W. Belmont, Mount Carmel, Ill. 60641.

Barry

Kevin G. Barry, beloved son of Walter G. Barry and Patricia Socha Barry, died yesterday at 10:30 a. m. at the Chicago Hospital, 6301 W. Belmont, Mount Carmel, Ill. 60641.